Asbury Daily Study Guide

INTRODUCTION

Maybe you're a "Three P" person—you have power, prestige, and possessions. You have influence. You are envied. People take you seriously because of what you've accomplished, what you look like, or who you're married to. There's nothing wrong with being a "Three P" person. But when it comes to pride, "Three P" people face a unique challenge.

Monday: Daniel 4:1-18

Nebuchadnezzar was a three 'P Person' just like there are 'three P' persons today. In what ways do you see power, prestige, and possessions abused in our culture? In what ways does that shape our cultural priorities?

Tuesday: Daniel 4:19-27

Nebuchadnezzar believed he was greater than all other people. What is one area in which you're regularly tempted to look down on others—education, possessions, physical appearance, influence, experience, intelligence? What is the cost of giving in to your pride?

Wednesday: Daniel 4:28-37

Nebuchadnezzar realized that all he had could be taken away from him. Think about the areas of your life where you have the most influence, power, and prestige. What would it look like for you to treat those areas like a temporary stewardship from God for which you are accountable?

Thursday: Daniel 5:1-8

In his arrogance, Belshazzar threw a party while the Persians were surrounding Babylon. He thought his city and his reign would last forever. Although he knew his grandfather's (Nebuchadnezzar) story, he learned nothing from it. Have you ever ignored advice from people who were older and more experienced than you? What were the results?

Friday: Daniel 5:9-28

God made it clear to Belshazzar that his days were numbered. What does it mean to you that God has numbered the days of your power, prestige, and possessions? To what extent does that principle currently influence the daily decisions you make?

MOVING FORWARD

When you see someone with less—less sophistication, intelligence, education, money, or influence—you're tempted to think more highly of yourself. Pause for a moment and tell your pride, "The Most High is sovereign over all the kingdoms." Remind your pride that everything God has given you is a stewardship. It's temporary. You are accountable for how you use it.
